

Location and Place

Investigating where locations are in the world and how this can affect people and places.

Planning and Decision Making

Understanding that there is often more than one reason for decision making.

Thinking like a Geographer...

Cause and Effect

Discovering how there can be different causes for events, how these can be linked and how significant they are

Change

Exploring how natural causes of change and human activities can influence geographical change.